THE STAR

1920

VOLUME SIXTEEN

PUBLISHED ANNUALLY BY THE LITERARY SOCIETIES OF
HENDERSON-BROWN COLLEGE
ARKADELPHIA, ARKANSAS

Dedication

TO him, whom we respect as a professor, whom we admire as a scholar, whom we honor as a gentleman, and whom we love as a friend, we dedicate this sixteenth volume of the Star,

Robert T. Proctor

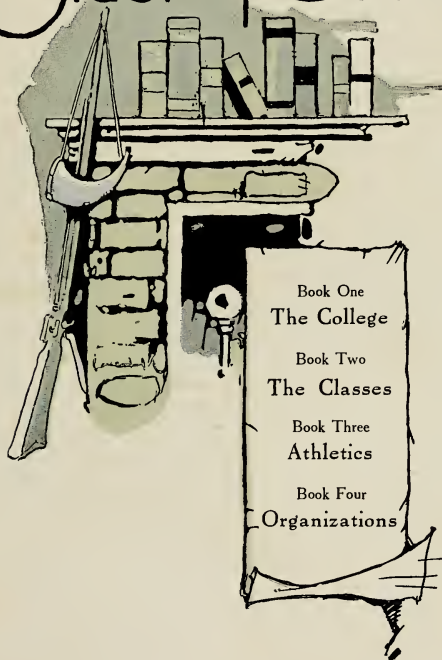

ROBERT T. PROCTOR

Foreword

IT is not the purpose of the Staff in the publication of this volume of the Star to give to the world an imperishable work of literature—far from it. But if in years to come these pages echo the friendship, joy, and high ideals that we have known here together, then this book will be memory's dearest possession and we shall have accomplished our aim. We submit it to you, kind friend. Read and judge leniently.

Montine is a country girl who developed big-town ways. She has a supply of A's large enough to start an alphabet block factory. The present high price of gold is due to the fact that Montine cornered the medal market several years ago.

This young chemist hopes to precipitate as a Senior without a filtrate. He belongs to that species of genus homo who never speak except when they have something to say. As a ladies' man he has consistently refused to diversify, but is rotation the best policy?

"Tootsie," the versatile soldier, prof., baritone, lawyer, athlete—the man with the $2,000 voice. A "gas" attack in France had lasting effects on this fellow; he still sends counter charges.

Bertha, the wit of the class and the class of college wits. Withal, she is a good student. Her favorite song is, "Good-bye, Boys, I'm Through." She is going to teach school, but not in Star City.

When this ambitious, capable youth leaves H. B. we will lose one of our strongest and truest men. He doesn't know what he's going to do, but whenever he decides, it will be done.

Cleo is the artist of the class; in fact, she can draw most anything but a salary—and she intends doing that next year. In a chicken fight she is in the class of the basketeers, and few are the goals thrown through her defense. For other vital statistics, refer to the Junior Class.

ERA PETRONIA BAXTER, Piano Glenwood, Ark.

Upsilon Phi

Era is the girl with the smiling countenance and the R. S. V. P. eyes. Her ability to coax melody from a refractory pianoforte is remarkable. Were it not for Dr. Harwood we would be tempted to say that she can make a congregation of ivories moan for help. We would like to hold the book for her recital, but finding it impossible, predict an artistic triumph.

POLLY GIBBS, B.M. Arkadelphia, Ark.

Upsilon Phi

French Club '20; Chaplain Society '19.

Polly came to Arkadelphia from Shreveport, La., and has shown no disposition to go back as yet. She intends to teach music and would like to visit Paris some time. As a disciple of preparedness, she has learned to wander over a keyboard and to "parley vous" like one to the manner born. She cavorts around in her Dodge and thus adds to the joy of life.

Senior Class

ANNE KATHLEEN HEARIN, Expression Arkadelphia, Ark.
Philomathean

Vice-President Society '18; "A. B. C.s" '18, '19, '20; "T. B.s" '19, '20; Inter-society Reader '18; President Philomathean '20; Winner Reading Medal '19; Vice-President Society '20; Inter-society Essayist '20.

Kathleen is as talented as she is attractive. It's a real treat to hear her read; she seems picked out for a career on the stage. She combines both the talent and the attractive personality needful. Here's to Kathleen, the winsome and the winning.

MINOR GRACE CRABTREE, Expression Bradley, Ark.
Upsilon Phi

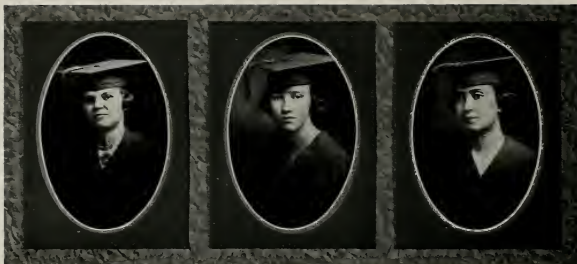

Member "A. B. C.s" '18, '19; A. B. C. Basketball Team '18, '19; Treasurer Society '18, '19; Graduate in Piano Henderson-Brown Conservatory '19; Co-ed Basketball Team '19, '20; Inter-society Reader '20.

The Class of Twenty possesses one of the Graces. This is Grace's second experience as a Senior. She must have liked Senior privileges. At any rate, after finishing in music, she came back and did it all over again in expression. She is occasionally seen at receptions.

MARY SELMA TAYLOR, Expression Pine Grove, Ark.
Upsilon Phi

Treasurer Society '18; Vice-President Society '19, '20; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '19; Y. W. C. A. Delegate to Hollister '19; President Y. W. C. A. '20; Treasurer Junior Class '19; Member Student Council '19; Oracle Staff '19, '20.

Selma's is a rare personality. Her specialty seems to be Y. W. C. A. work, but that's not saying she doesn't spend part of her time expressing herself. Selma's only thorn in a bed of roses is keeping up with her brother George. Here's to Selma, the genial, the placid tempered mountain lake under June skies.

Senior Class

MARY WARD, Home Economics Prescott, Ark.
Philomathean

Mary is another cook of whom the Class of Twenty can boast. If you have ever tasted any of her Date Mousse you will realize that she is an artist with the pots and pans. Such substantial things as beaten biscuits, steaks and juicy ham deserve more than passing mention the way Mary cooks them.

KATIE MAY SHANKLE, Home Economics Arkadelphia, Ark.
Upsilon Phi

In this world of unrest, Katie May has planned her future on the things that endure. She has planned aright. Yes, she has learned to cook. What's that saying about the nearest way to a man's heart? And she is acquainted with other entrancing arts besides cooking. All in all, Katie May is a wise girl.

MATTIE ELIZABETH ROSS, Home Economics Arkadelphia, Ark.
Upsilon Phi

Chaplain Society '18; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '18, '20; Treasurer Society '19; Secretary-Treasurer Life Service Band '20; President Upsilon Phi '20.

Mattie never thrusts herself forward, yet she is prominent. Besides her, the Sphinx is a small-town gossip, but when she has something to say she says it. Her most enduring work has been done in the Y. W. C. A. and the Service Band. She is a worthy member of 20's trio of cooks. Here's to Mattie, the reliable; she never yet fell down on an assignment.

Junior Class

SALLIE MAUDE ROSS, A.B.

Okolona, Ark.

*"The maid who modestly conceals
Her beauties, while she hides, reveals."*

"Sook" has a mania for being President—and we are glad to have her the second time. She wants to be a seamstress, a Taylor, or something like that.

LOUISE PORTER, A.B.

North Little Rock, Ark.

"Now for a madcap galloping chase, I'll make a commotion in every place."

Poems, short stories, and essays are created in her fertile brain. "Skatty Lou" wants to sing in Grand Opera. She says she is fond of eating, but you'd never guess it.

MYAL C. GREENE, A.B., B.S.

Arkadelphia, Ark.

"Men, like bullets, go farthest when they are smoothest."

"Crawfish" says he likes to get into hot water—but at that he's not crazy about baths. He's good at shooting baskets—and other things. We refer you to the Who's Who Section.

AMY DAVIS MOORE, A.B.

Prescott, Ark.

"And vital feelings of delight Shall rear her form to stately height."

"Ames" is looking for a dancing master. She likes to dance or do nothing—and she seems to enjoy herself immensely.

Junior Class

BOULWARE MARTIN, A.B.

Horatio, Ark.

"You're uncommon in one thing—you're uncommonly small."

"Ipsie" likes to do things up "Brown." Her journalistic tendencies are shown off to a good advantage in "The Oracle." As an English shark she is peerless.

ELBERT T. MOODY, B.S.

Glenwood, Ark.

"Not afraid of work, but not in sympathy with it."

"Terrible Filbert" takes to sports like a gutta percha duck to water. He plays football and basketball, doing track on the side. He takes other things occasionally—Senior dates for instance. His favorite magazine is The Woman's Home Companion.

AGNES CRAWFORD, Piano

Carlisle, Ark.

*"To hide her cares, her greatest art;
Her pleasure, pleasures to impart."*

"Billie" is an epitome of co-ed graces, a rare violet in the Junior bouquet. She eats most of the time (time is not all she eats) to gain weight, she says, but it may be she likes it. She intends to marry the owner of a chain of delicatessen stores.

MARY DEAN, A.B.

Des Arc, Ark.

"Singing, thou scalest Heaven upon thy wings, Thou liftest a glad heart into the skies"

Quiet, demure, reserved, Mary is a true friend to all who know her. Singing is one of "the fondest things she's of," and her audience is no less fond.

Junior Class

HAZEL CLEMENTS, A.B.

Arkadelphia, Ark.

"Let them be good that love me, tho' but few."

"Haze" is not what her name implies—even if she does have a far-away look in her eyes. She has a smile whenever you see her.

JAMES RADFORD BUSH, A.B.

Prescott, Ark.

*"Although his college course is steep,
Each day he takes nine hours to sleep."*

"Jim" is a wise man—he came here from Hendrix. When he becomes President he says he is going to be good to his former classmates. He plays baseball but prefers pitch.

BERNIE MILLS, A.B.

Arkadelphia, Ark.

"She would not with peremptory tone, Assert the nose upon her face, her own."

"Jack" has a knack for writing English themes. She knows plenty to say if she would—but she won't.

MARTHA WILLIAMS

Home Economics

Arkadelphia, Ark.

*"When I love, I profess it; when I hate,
In every circumstance I dare proclaim it."*

"Hannah" takes a hand in all that happens. She has a weakness for the sciences and tries to make a whole course from them.

Junior Class

CLARA JEAN, Home Economics
Atlanta, Ark.

"Civilized men cannot live without cooks."

If the way to a man's heart is via his appetite, "Prissy" knows how to take all the short cuts. However, this is only one of the many things in which she excels.

MATT ELLIS, A.B.
Lockesburg, Ark.

"Common Sense in an uncommon degree is what the world calls Wisdom."

As an editor, Uncle Matt is a first-class astronomer. "Star"-gazing and hash-slinging are his favorite pastimes. His middle name is Versatility.

VESTA ROGERS, Expression
Arkadelphia, Ark.

"The most manifold sign of wisdom is continued cheerfulness."

"Vesta Minerva," what a classical Grecian name. And her face is as Grecian as the Venus de Milo. She takes delight in a reading contest.

FRANK MEEKS, A.B.
Arkadelphia, Ark.

*"I am never at anchor, I never shall be;
I am sailing the glass of Infinity's sea."*

If it were not for the wanderlust, "Weenie" would be a model student. If you would know what he does best, you should visit the logic class. "Not dead but sleeping."

Junior Class

GLADYS CARROLL NEAL, Expression
Russellville, Ark.

"What will be, will be; so why worry?"

"Happy" wants to go to the seashore—so she can play "By the Sea." She gets her share of everything—if she wants it.

MARY ALICE SHINN, Piano
Russellville, Ark.

"Is there a heart that music cannot melt?"

"Shinney" is ambitious to own a vineyard and also wants to cultivate "sage." This doesn't mean that she wants to be a farmerette.

LELAND L. SAGE, A.B.
Camden, Ark.

*"Some to church repair,
Not for the doctrine, but the music there."*

Shelley's "Skylark" didn't have a thing on this bird. "Staff" delights in moonlight serenades—and refreshments. Without him the Glee Club would only be a club.

RUTHELLE CARGILE, Voice
Junction City, Ark.

"With music sweet as love that overflows her bower."

"Rufus," the Galli-Curei of H. B. C. To a heavy heart, her sweet voice is like unto a ray of sunshine entering a dark room.

LULA BETH GEE, Voice
Prescott, Ark.

"Her very foot has music in it as she treads upon the stair."

"Buchie" is a tamer of wild animals, her favorite species being the "Tiger." There could be no heart so hard her sweet notes could not soften.

Junior Class

ZIRLINE TRICE, Expression Cotton Plant, Ark.

*"Her voice was ever soft, gentle and low;
an excellent thing in woman."*

"Briton's" favorite color is "Green." She stars in three lines—dramatics, literary and domestic science. She made an everlasting hit in "Twelfth Night."

SARAH GOOCH, Expression Vandale, Ark.

"I would do anything to serve a friend."

As independent as the United States is our friend "Sal." She says what she thinks and she thinks a lot.

PEARL MILLER, Voice Heber Springs, Ark.

*"To sum up all, be merry, I advise,
And as we are merry, may we still be wise."*

"Perline" is of great value to our class, for she is a Pearl and a Miller, too. She is in her prime in having a good time.

EFFIE BRIDGES, Piano Arkadelphia, Ark.

*"Absence of occupation is not rest,
A mind quite vacant is a mind distressed."*

One of Miss Mooney's stars. She manipulates figures in a way to win the deserved praise of this popular instructor. She's another of Dr. Harwood's favorites supplied by the Class of '21.

INEZ WOLFF, Piano Bingen, Ark.

"The happiest heart that ever beat was in some quiet breast."

"Nez" tickles the ivories in a most approved manner, and is fully deserving of Dr. Harwood's unstinted praise. You will find her at receptions. She's "Strong" now.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

Football, 1919

WHEN the dope fiends of coming years refer to the 1920 STAR for the football records, they will find that we lost both to Hendrix and Ouachita by the largest scores in the history of athletic relations with these worthy foes. But will they know why? They will if they read the following.

When the new coach, Bill Watson, sent his proteges into the first game, a practice affair with Pine Bluff High, he was fairly well satisfied with the material, because he believed that it would develop swiftly into championship class. Four minutes after the first whistle, Old Man Jinx began his deadly work. Greene, a utility back, was forced out for the season with an unsocketed elbow. Three days later, Taylor, a halfback, went to the sideline during a practice scrimmage with a dislocated shoulder. Three days later, with a patched up backfield, three members of which had been out just over a week, the Normal took us into camp to the tune of 19-0. The next week we tied Little Rock College, 6-6, but dearly paid for it, when Minor Gordon, acting captain, broke his leg, and Taylor suffered severe internal injuries. A few days later Cecil Gee was called home on business. Everyone was wondering who would be the next one.

Fortunately the next game was a non-association affair, and with the able assistance of Bully McLean, we downed our ancient and honorable foes from L. I. I., 14-7. But Edmondson, the last of the original backfield list, went out with a sprained knee and a dislocated shoulder.

The next week Coach Watson assembled a bunch of recruits and carried them to Conway to tackle the Bulldogs in their own kennell. We hurriedly pass over this game. The score was 128-0.

Not a bit undaunted, the same Reddies came home to prepare for Ouachita. We lost to Magnolia "Aggies" by the close margin of two points, 21-19, failing to kick goal after touchdown. In the meantime Ouachita had beaten Hendrix 6-3 and everyone was predicting a 150-point defeat for us.

With just four of the fifteen men who made up the original first squad, the hardest fighting team seen here this season entered the final game. With their supporters on the sidelines rooting just as hard or harder than any bunch ever yelled, the little Reddies, mostly second team men, held the big Tigers to one lone touchdown in the first quarter. In the second quarter they made it only three more. In the last half they ran it up to 66-0. Every man had covered himself with glory from Rush, the diminutive end, to Moody, the big tackle.

Taking the men as individuals, Gordon had proven himself the best master of the forward pass in Arkansas. He had a wonderful receiver in his fellow townsman, Haynie. When he went out with a broken leg our surest means of advancing the ball was lost. "Shorty" Edmondson, changed from a gob suit to the moleskins, and though hampered by continual injuries, was the most watched man in the Ouachita game. Few, an old end, back from France, was just mastering his new position of tackle when the effects of a severe gassing "over there" began to tell, and he was forced to retire. Elbert Moody was the only man to play every minute of every game. His consistent, sometimes spectacular, playing won for him the captaincy for next year. Taylor was showing all the makings of a star until forced out by injuries. He was given the captaincy of this year's team as a reward for his never-ceasing fight. The McLean brothers, Sage and Jewell, did valiant work, changing from line to the backfield after all the regulars were injured. The first mentioned played every minute until the last quarter of the last game, when he was taken out with a ruptured side muscle. Both should star next year. "Mt. Ida" McCulloch did good work at guard and tackle, as did Chambers, a first-year man. Tennyson served well at end and half, fever keeping him out of the last two games. Harkey, a sixteen-year-old, relieved him and did wonderfully well. Rush, the smallest man in college football, was alert, swift and game to the core. Greene would have made a valuable man. Haynie was always good, steady and reliable. Young George Workman showed his grit by staying with the biggest of them. He is a comer.

Others who went out for the squad were: Milton and Fletcher Young, Huddleston, Whiteside, Stinnette, Ault, Key, Dunn, Carter, Ridling.

Everyone who knows anything about Arkansas athletics knows "Jimmie" Haygood, who brought seven championships and one tie to Henderson in eight years. His "John Hancock" is attached to a contract for five years. This means that the reorganization of H.-B. athletics will be in his hands.

No more joyful news was ever received than this announcement. Reddie supporters are expecting a comeback, and we feel that they shall not be disappointed. Look in the 1921 STAR and see the difference in the stories.

February 23-24, Henderson Brown had the honor of acting as host to the First Collegiate Basketball Tournament ever staged in Arkansas. It was a great success, the attendance was overflowing, the brand of ball displayed superb, the refereeing excellent. All local expenses of the visiting teams and a large per cent of their railroad fare were defrayed by the tournament. Much credit is due Coach Lee for his management that made the affair possible, and also for his management of the Reddies so as to get three All-State men from it. Little Rock was the class of the tournament, with the Reddies a close second. Hendrix led in the scoring, with 211 points, while Henderson Brown came next, with a total of 130. The highest individual scorer was Hawley of Hendrix, who had 76 points to his credit. Captain Greene of the Reddies closely followed, with 67. The overwhelming success of the first State tournament insures its permanence in Arkansas Intercollegiate Athletics.

STATE CHAMPIONS

The year 1920 will be remembered in the annals of H. B. C. for many years to come and truly the last thing to be forgotten will not be the Co-ed Basketball Team. The season was one unmarred by defeat for the Reddieties. They conquered many strong High School teams—Prescott, 17-2; Camden, 23-18; North Little Rock, 22-5; Benton, 28-11, and Arkadelphia a number of times with one-sided scores—but Coach Proctor's prize sextet didn't show their real class until Hendrix laid claim to the title. 'Twas then that a close and hardly contested, 17-15, victory was theirs over our all-confident rivals from Conway. Space will not permit a lengthy write-up, but special praise is due Mr. Proctor, the girls' beloved coach; Captain Gee, the invincible guard; Vivian Morgan, the consistent basket twirler, and the Smith-Thomas combination, whose work in the center was unsurpassed. Alita Hamiter's work in the other forward's position accounts for her being elected Captain for 1921.

Baseball Squad

T. LEE Coach
 GEORGE TAYLOR Captain

At the present writing it is hard to say just what kind of a showing the baseball team will make this year. Immediately ensuing the basketball season, Coach Lee issued the call for candidates of the diamond, and the men answered him loyally. Greene and Haynie, of last year's infield, survive, and Rush, Radford and Brown, of the outfield, are back. Few and Taylor, both letter men of former years and who were out of school on account of the war, are reclaiming their positions in the infield. Bush and Nelson, outfielders of the 1919 Hendrix Bulldogs, promise to add strength to the team. Pitchers seem to be the only weakness, but we know not yet what is in the new material. Dunn bids fair to fill the position of Captain Turner behind the bat. Moody, Bush, Chamberlain and Oastler speak for berths in the box.

A complete schedule cannot be published at this time, but it is practically arranged. Ouachita, Hendrix, and the Normal are sure to be included in the list.

TENNIS

Considerable interest is being manifested in tennis this year, and it seems that the sport is going to regain its place in Arkansas athletics. Whether there is a state meet or not, the Reddie team, by contract, will tourney with the Hendrix team. Last year Henderson won the singles but lost the doubles to our ancient rivals. Among the old men are Shorty, Rush, Graves and Stitt. Several new men are making a good showing. We anxiously look forward to the Hendrix tourney.

The Life Service Band is a band of students who have taken as their life purpose the carrying of the Gospel of Salvation through Jesus Christ to those who have it not. The injunction of the Master, "Go ye into all the world," has been to them a personal challenge. They are answering the great challenge before the young people of the Church today, and they go to swell the ranks of that army of workers for Christ. Their message is "Hear His Voice!"

MISS MARY SUE MOONEY

For seven years the Faculty Representative on the Cabinet of the Young Woman's Christian Association. Her wise counsel and untiring efforts to strengthen the work of the organization have been an inspiration to the members. Her loyalty to the spirit and ideals of Christian service have constantly stimulated the young women to do more earnest work. The Association members gratefully acknowledge their dependence on her leadership.

UPSILON PHI LITERARY SOCIETY

September, 1919, again brought numbers of faithful old Ups back to H. B. C. with their characteristic vim, vigor and society spirit, which won for our Society so many new girls, bringing our roll up to ninety-five.

The Upsilon Phi Society has been growing for twenty-nine years, and this year has been no exception to the old rule of good work and progress. New furnishings for the hall were bought and paid for, quite a neat little sum being realized from our annual bazaar.

May the Dear Old Ups press on through the years, never lowering the standard for the things that are high and beautiful, but setting each year new standards for the betterment of the Society, the College, and for generations to come.

PHILOMATHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The year 1919-20 has been a wonderful one in the history of the Society. The members without exception showed a marked sense of loyalty and interest at the beginning of the rush season, and it was kept up throughout the year. There has been a new enthusiasm in literary society work manifested by a majority of the students throughout the school this year that was heretofore unknown and it can but bring good results.

Much valuable work along literary lines has already been accomplished and an even more intensive study is planned for the future. The Philos are striving that the future of the Society shall not be unworthy of its past. In doing this they are upholding the standard set by that group of girls who first adopted for their motto: "To live, and learn, and be all that does not harm distinctive womanhood."

The Oracle

HERE are certain things every real, live, self-respecting college must maintain and certainly not least among these is a real live college paper. In this Henderson-Brown is not at all lacking. A few historical remarks follow.

In the scholastic year 1907-08 an effort was made in Henderson College to launch a college paper, but owing to a general lack of interest and a misunderstanding among the students, the attempt failed. At the beginning of the session of 1908-09, however, the question was settled. The various college organizations elected representatives and these in turn elected from their number Edgar L. Dean, Editor-in-Chief, and J. Harry Henderson, Business Manager. The staff offered a prize for a name for the publication, and from the dozens that were submitted, "The Oracle," suggested by J. W. Rogers, was selected. Thus the Oracle was founded and it still continues to live.

The paper was published in its present form for four years. In 1912-13 it was changed to a monthly magazine and appeared only eight times during the school year for seven years. At the beginning of the session of 1919-20 the Oracle again took its original newspaper form and was published weekly. This was in keeping with the growth and spirit of the college.

The Oracle has always stood for the highest and best ideals of college life. Mistakes have been made, yes, but they were of the head, not of the heart. In its first year an issue was suppressed by the staff at the suggestion of Dr. B. S. Foster, who has acted as guardian angel to all the staffs in the Oracle's history.

One of the general policies of the management has always been to refrain from publishing anything that would detract from the fraternal and sportsmanlike relation that should exist among the colleges and schools of our State and Nation. Articles have appeared within its columns during the twelve years of the Oracle's existence that have caused miniature sensations of "a tempest in a teapot," but those mistakes invariably served as stepping stones, and Phoenix-like the Oracle has risen from the storm and grown higher, better and finer.

The Oracle has been printed by The Siftings Herald Printing Co. of Arkadelphia during the entire period of its existence, and through the helpful suggestions of the Herald force and the hearty co-operation of the students and faculty the publication has become the strong power that it is.

Appreciation

NOW that the 1920 Star has grown from the haunting phantom that we confess it was, to a reality, we can rest in peace. Let the strains of music fall no more upon our ears, let the curtain drop to the floor; let the lights die out and be not, for our performance is finished and the shadowy actors vanish behind the dim footlights of Time. But before leaving the stage of action and descending again to "earthly" affairs, we desire to express our appreciation to all who have aided us in making this book a reality. We thank Miss Mooney for her ever willingness to help in any way she could. Dr. Workman, our president, has at all times shown an interest that we appreciate. He has rendered invaluable service in a business way. We owe special thanks to Mr. Thompson and Mr. Miller, our photographers, who so faithfully labored for us. The thoughtful kindness of Miss Jones and others, who helped in the picture-taking season, are deserving of very special mention. The patience, valuable suggestion, and skilled workmanship of The Benson Printing Co., and the prompt service of the Jahn and Ollier Engraving Co., account in a large way for what the book is. To all these and more, we are truly grateful. But above all we are indebted to the business men who so kindly advertised in our annual. Without their support, the 1920 Star would have been an impossibility.

Very strict refereeing by the old star of the game, Miss Katherine Jones. Absolutely no overguarding, but she couldn't keep the awful Reddies from scoring.
- 10—Spring term opens, but some do not spring. Several commercial pupils finish their work and bid H. B. C. good-bye. Ewell, Daddy, Slim, Sloan among the departing ones. Sarah more sour than ever.

NOTE—Bertha says this little hicky calendar will have to end, for it's got to go to press. There's about a million other things that ought to go in its columns—Spec's wedding on the twenty-third, and maybe Miss Corkill a little later on, and then there's Miss Montgomery still on the carpet. There will be many picnics 'n ever'thing, but you can look in the 1921 Star for all those historical events.

If a red-headed father had a red-headed son, would it be a case of hair-red-ity?

ARKADELPHIA MILLING COMPANY

Arkadelphia, Arkansas

THE LARGEST MANUFACTURING ENTERPRISE IN ARKANSAS

Did you know our business in 1919 was $5,645,955.23—yet less than 5 per cent of it was in Clark County? We paid in Clark County last year more than $1,250,000.00 for material, salary and labor.

Our products were shipped into twenty-eight states and seven foreign countries. Within the last few years our strides in progress have been tremendous. For instance, our business for November and December, 1917, amounted to over one million dollars. More business was transacted in these two months than we did the first four years we were in business.

We employ more than five hundred men, and pay out practically a half million dollars in wages, salaries and dividends.

Northern mills do not help in any of the county or local activities—they pay no tax nor support any charities in Clark County. Don't our activities help you to some extent? Are not our interests somewhat mutual? If so, why not reciprocate, and insist on Arkadelphia Milling Company products being used in your home?

We Have Adopted the Slogan:

"The Heart of the Grain Plus the Art of the Brain"

History repeats itself, but it never recites itself.

Hurrah for the College With a Heart In It!

We appreciate a school with a vision of greater things, not only where the mind is trained along educational lines, but where the building of character is considered first of all. We appreciate the co-operation on the part of the student body, and we are looking forward to the time as the years come and go when we may have the pleasure of fitting each one up for housekeeping.

In pitching your tent for the future remember to look for the sign, "Red, White & Blue. We Furnish Your Home Thru and Thru."
